Location

Roses, a charming coastal town in the autonomous region of Catalonia, is situated on the northern edge of the Bay of Roses, in the Alt Empordà comarca of the Girona province. Beautifully nestled in the foothills of the Eastern Pyrenees, the town is dominated by the 230-meter-high Puig Rom. The historic old town invites leisurely strolls through its quaint, winding streets, boutiques, and bodegas.

A highlight of Roses is its nearly 3 km long sandy beach, stretching between the modern marina and the Riu Grau. Numerous picturesque coves, such as Canyelles Petites, l'Almadrava, Cap Norfeu, Punta Falconera, Cala Jocols, and Cala Montjoi, provide perfect spots for relaxation and beach enjoyment. Roses offers an abundance of recreational activities. In addition to a range of water sports like water skiing, sailing, and swimming, the area is also ideal for hiking. The Aqua Park, with its various slides, promises fun for all ages, while a ride on a small train through Roses offers a pleasant way to explore the town.
