Location

Welcome to Calpe, a charming holiday destination on the Costa Blanca, renowned for its stunning beaches and maritime atmosphere. Calpe, also known as Calp, attracts both young and mature travelers, offering a perfect blend of relaxation and adventure. The town is famous for its two excellent sandy beaches, which stretch a total of 11 kilometers. To the north lies Playa de Levante, which gradually transitions into the coastal regions of Benissa and Moraira. To the south, you'll find Playa del Arenal, known for its excellent water quality and fine sand. Both beaches proudly display the EU Blue Flag, a mark of their cleanliness and high environmental standards. With a population of around 15,000, Calpe is not only a place for a sunny getaway but also a vibrant center of maritime traditions. The town has a rich history in fishing, prominently showcased in the famous fish auction (Lonja). Here, you can bid on fresh fish and seafood daily or enjoy them in one of the excellent seafood restaurants.

Let the charming atmosphere and beauty of this popular destination captivate you!.
