Location

Lloret Fenals is an idyllic, family-friendly district of Lloret de Mar on the picturesque Costa Brava in Spain. This peaceful spot is ideal for those seeking a relaxed holiday away from the hustle and bustle, without sacrificing the amenities of a lively town. In Lloret Fenals, there are a variety of excellent restaurants and cozy bars that invite you to linger and enjoy. Notably, there are no nightclubs here, which contributes to the relaxed atmosphere.

Fenals Beach is a true gem, stretching over approximately 700 meters, making it the second-largest beach in Lloret de Mar. It is nestled in a wind-protected bay, separated from the town center and the main beach of Lloret de Mar by an impressive rocky massif. This bay offers a secluded, natural setting that is perfect for relaxation.

Like the main beach, Fenals Beach is characterized by coarse-grained sand and a gentle slope into the calm, crystal-clear water. Here, you can soak up the sun while the gentle sound of the sea and the fresh breeze ensure absolute relaxation.
